

Please, please, please, do not allow the Consumer Bankers Assoc to weaken the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. This law is the best thing that has happened since the invention of the telephone. It is wonderful not to be bothered by telemarketers & I dread to think of going back to before the law was enacted.